Correct artillery sights which are marked in Farsi as are all the other markings. The barrel is marked with the Mauser Crown over U proof mark as well as the commercial Crown mark on the otherside. Metalwork retains near all original blue finish and straw colours. Showing holster wear to the side plate and muzzle. ExC original chequered grips. All external numbers in Farsi are matching except the magazine which is the correct alloy base plate type and marked in Farsi. Complete with original rig. The shoulder stock board is marked with matching Farsi number to the gun and includes its correct Persian made leather work consisting of dark brown leather holster containing rod and stripping tool and complete with shoulder straps, boot and double magazine pouch. With only 1000 of these contract pistols produced and considered to be one of the finest lugers made, this is a unique opportunity for the advanced Luger collector. ExWO&C B/CLR Estimate. $6,000 - $8,000

201 - 1908 FIRST ISSUE LUGER PISTOL

A very scarce and top example Imperial German Army First Issue P08 Luger, circa 1909. 4" 9mm Barrel with original dorsal fin foresight. The chamber without date and is marked on the left hand side with proof marks and also marked with the test fire proof on the barrel. The toggle is marked DWM and without hold open. The serial numbers are in the correct commercial style and are matching except the magazine which is in ExC and the correct type. Metalwork retains near all original bright rust blue finish and straw colours. The frame is without stock lug and is unit marked B.5.R.5.1 (Barvarian 5th Infantry division). This unit battled throughout the war on the Western front at the Battle of the Frontiers, Champagne, The Somme, Passchendaele and the 2nd Battle of the Somme. A similar pistol is featured on page VI of Imperial Lugers by Still. Only 25% of first issue P08's were infantry marked and all had hard combat use. This is the first time this NZ veteran 'bring back' has been offered for sale in 40 years and a unique opportunity for the advanced Luger or Military collector. ExWO&C B/CLR Estimate. $5,500 - $7,000

202 - WINCHESTER MODEL 1895 RIFLE

Antique US Winchester lever action rifle, circa 1912. 24" Round barrel in .303 cal and marked NICKEL STEEL BARREL etc, 303 British and Winchester proof which is also present above the chamber. Left hand side of the receiver is marked with Winchester address and patent info and the tang MODEL 1895 WINCHESTER etc. Metalwork has thinning original blue to the barrel and grey patina with traces of finish to the action. VGC woodwork with some aged minor dings and steel butt plate. VGWO&C ALR

203 - WINCHESTER M1892 RIFLE

Antique, circa 1904 Winchester model 1892 lever action rifle. 24" Round barrel in 44-40 cal and with full length magazine and original Buckhorn sights. The barrel is marked on top WINCHESTER REPEATING ARMS CO. NEW HAVEN etc and 44W.C.F. Metalwork retains most original blue finish turning to grey in areas on the frame. The top tang is marked MODEL 1892 WINCHESTER TRADEMARK. VG-ExC original woodwork with some aged minor scratches. Good original Winchester like this in good shootable condition are increasingly hard to find. VGWO&C ALR

204 - BURGESS SHOTGUN

A rare and unusual Burgess Gun Company slide action take down shotgun, circa 1892-99. This gun uses a unique sliding pistol grip action to cycle the gun. 30" Damascus twist barrel with bead foresight and 1/2 tube magazine. The action is marked on the top BURGESS GUN CO BUFFALO NY USA and the underside with patent information, right hand side with take down lever. Metalwork with near all brown to the barrel and dark patina to the action. VGC original chequered woodwork with some dings, complete with original Burgess logo, hard rubber butt plate. Andrew Burgess was a prolific designer with around 600 patents to his name and very few of these guns were made before his company was bought out by Winchester in 1899. ExWO&C ALR

205 - ANTIQUE HENRY RIFLE

Extremely rare US Henry lever action rifle, circa 1865. 24" Octagonal .44 rimfire cal barrel with sling swivel and original sights, the rear graduated to 800 yards. The barrel is marked on top, in front of the rear sight HENRY'S PATENT OCT 16 1860 MANUFACTURED BY NEW HAVEN ARMS CO NEW HAVEN CT the four digit serial number in the eleven thousand range is located behind the rear sight. The brass frame is marked H on the lower tang (B. Tyler Henry's inspection mark). Metalwork has nice untouched original dark patina and the brass with nice aged honey colour. The original wooden stock with late profile brass butt plate with trap. Left hand side fitted with original sling swivel. The stock has some pressure dings and a small chip on right hand side at the back of the frame. With only 14000 of these iconic rifles produced and only a handful in New Zealand, opportunities to purchase one seldom occur. VGWO&C ALR Est $35,000 - $40,000

206 - NOCK VOLLEY GUN

An extremely rare and desirable British Military Henry Nock Flintlock Volley gun, circa 1780-1800. Seven 20" .52 cal smooth bore barrels welded together and ignited through small vents from the central barrel to fire all the barrels simultaneously. The barrels have most overall brown finish and each feature Birmingham proof marks. The muzzle end of the barrels have a rounded wear to the edges, most likely caused by resting the muzzle down in a ship and the constant rocking motion. The lock is marked TOWER with the GR Royal Cypher as well as the British Military Ordnance mark under the frizzen. The action is strong and positive. VGC original woodwork with slight aged crack around the top of the wrist. On the right hand side there is the sticker/seal of the British antique dealers association. The brass butt plate extends 3 1/2" along the top of the stock. The triggerguard is also brass and features an acorn finial. There are three brass ram rod tubes all with cannon turns and the front has correct flat retention spring. Complete with steel ram rod. The Nock Volley gun was used by the British Navy during the Napoleonic Wars and was fired from the crow's nest to clear the decks. Due to its extreme recoil its service life was very short and only 500 of these were purchased by the British government making this one of the rarest guns in the world with most examples in museums. This is a unique opportunity for the advanced collector to purchase what we believe to be the only privately held example in New Zealand. Provenance - Ted & Paul Shoebridge Collection. ExWO&C NLR. Estimate $45,00 - $55,000
